My company gives out free promotional items with the company name on it. Is this stuff called company swag or schwag? It seems that both come up as common usages--Google searching indicates that the

Whether installing solar panels at your home or purchasing a property with an existing solar setup,

Similarly, "free education" is funded by the state (which is ultimately financed by taxpayers) and taught in state-run schools called state schools whereas schools that charge tuition

A friend claims that the phrase for free is incorrect. Should we only say at no cost instead?

1 " Free " absolutely means "free from any sorts constraints or controls. The context determines its different denotations, if any, as in "free press", "free speech", "free stuff" etc.

What is the opposite of free as in "free of charge" (when we speak about prices)? We can add not for negation, but I am looking for a single word.

"Free" and "on the house" both mean that you don't have to pay, but the inferred meaning is slightly different. If something is "free" it is without charge. For example, you might

For example, imagine some food company decides to make their fruits permanently free. Online, you can "order" them (for free), but in person, what do you do? What would be the
